TICKET INFO
Tickets are available at the theater box office beginning ½ hour before curtain.
Curtain rises at 8 p.m. (See schedule for times).
We cannot accept reservations.

Musicals
$12 General Admission
$8 Students | Siena Heights Community | Seniors

Non-musicals
$8 General Admission
$6 Students | Siena Heights Community | Seniors
Season Passes (good for 2) are available for $75

OTHER INFO
Francoeur Theater and Stubnitz Theater are handicap accessible. During productions, please turn off all cell phones and pagers. Photography of any sort is prohibited.

GENERAL INFO
www.sienaheights.edu or the box office: 517.264.7840
Other questions: 517.264.7890
Fall 2008 Schedule

January 23 & 24 | 7:00 p.m.
Beyond the Path
Original concept by Joni Warner
Written by Kerry Graves
Directed by Kerry Graves

This new play, currently under construction, is suitable for all ages and explores how some of today's children seem to be losing touch with nature and all the wonders of the outdoors as they spend more and more time obsessed with computers and cell phones. It also looks at "the fear of the unknown" — something we all can relate to! Using humor and lots of imagination, this play will delight anyone who enjoys a beautiful sunset and it will remind us all to look beyond the usual, well-worn paths we tread everyday.

January 30 & 31 | 7:00 p.m.
February 1 | 2:00 p.m.
Cafeteria Clash!
(Suitable for 7th grade and up)
Original concept by Joni Warner
Written by Kerry Graves
Directed by Kerry Graves

Another world premiere, this play will examine the sometimes brutal, sometimes touching world of high school. How do today's teens deal with bullying, peer pressure, celebrity culture, the onslaught of technology and media messages, consumerism, and academic pressure to succeed? The list goes on and the kids keep finding their way the best they can. Our Creative Stages Young Actor's Workshop participants will contribute their thoughts, experiences, and words to the creation of this play. Using humor and pathos, headlines and diaries, and imagination and "reality," this production will take an inside look at how to cope with the daily Cafeteria Clash!

February 19, 20, & 21 | 8:00 p.m.
A Midsummer Night's Dream
By William Shakespeare
Directed by Mark DiPietro

Shakespeare's magnificent tale of magical lovers, overambitious nobles and fairy misadventures will delight young and old alike. The wedding celebration of Duke Theseus and his bride Hippolyta is interrupted by fairy trickery and unexpected lovers. Complications arise when the couple enter the enchanted moonlit forest where the King and Queen of the fairies preside, along with the impish Puck, who constantly courts mischief and chaos. Another set of characters, the "rude mechanicals" enter the forest at the same time to rehearse their horrible, yet hilarious version of a play in honor of the Duke's wedding. Will the lovers ever be happy? Can the Duke solve this dilemma? Will the actors ever be able to present their play? Complications give way to an evening of great fun and entertainment for the whole family.

April 2, 3, & 4 | 8:00 p.m.
The Secret Garden
Book and lyrics by Marsha Norman
Music by Lucy Simon
Based on the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett
Directed by Doug Miller

Orphaned in India, an 11 year old girl returns to Yorkshire to live with an embittered, reclusive uncle in his mysterious mansion on the moors. This compelling tale of regeneration includes a magic garden, Railbills, ghosts, dream sequences and some of the most beautiful music ever written for Broadway. This enchanting Tony award winning classic is a musical treasure for children and adults alike.

Holiday Break

Winter 2009 Schedule

January 23 & 24 | 7:00 p.m.
February 1 | 2:00 p.m.
Beyond the Path
Original concept by Joni Warner
Written by Kerry Graves
Directed by Kerry Graves

This new play, currently under construction, is suitable for all ages and explores how some of today's children seem to be losing touch with nature and all the wonders of the outdoors as they spend more and more time obsessed with computers and cell phones. It also looks at "the fear of the unknown" — something we all can relate to! Using humor and lots of imagination, this play will delight anyone who enjoys a beautiful sunset and it will remind us all to look beyond the usual, well-worn paths we tread everyday.

January 30 & 31 | 7:00 p.m.
February 1 | 2:00 p.m.
Cafeteria Clash!
(Suitable for 7th grade and up)
Original concept by Joni Warner
Written by Kerry Graves
Directed by Kerry Graves

Another world premiere, this play will examine the sometimes brutal, sometimes touching world of high school. How do today's teens deal with bullying, peer pressure, celebrity culture, the onslaught of technology and media messages, consumerism, and academic pressure to succeed? The list goes on and the kids keep finding their way the best they can. Our Creative Stages Young Actor's Workshop participants will contribute their thoughts, experiences, and words to the creation of this play. Using humor and pathos, headlines and diaries, and imagination and "reality," this production will take an inside look at how to cope with the daily Cafeteria Clash!

February 19, 20, & 21 | 8:00 p.m.
A Midsummer Night's Dream
By William Shakespeare
Directed by Mark DiPietro

Shakespeare's magnificent tale of magical lovers, overambitious nobles and fairy misadventures will delight young and old alike. The wedding celebration of Duke Theseus and his bride Hippolyta is interrupted by fairy trickery and unexpected lovers. Complications arise when the couple enter the enchanted moonlit forest where the King and Queen of the fairies preside, along with the impish Puck, who constantly courts mischief and chaos. Another set of characters, the "rude mechanicals" enter the forest at the same time to rehearse their horrible, yet hilarious version of a play in honor of the Duke's wedding. Will the lovers ever be happy? Can the Duke solve this dilemma? Will the actors ever be able to present their play? Complications give way to an evening of great fun and entertainment for the whole family.

April 2, 3, & 4 | 8:00 p.m.
The Secret Garden
Book and lyrics by Marsha Norman
Music by Lucy Simon
Based on the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett
Directed by Doug Miller

Orphaned in India, an 11 year old girl returns to Yorkshire to live with an embittered, reclusive uncle in his mysterious mansion on the moors. This compelling tale of regeneration includes a magic garden, Railbills, ghosts, dream sequences and some of the most beautiful music ever written for Broadway. This enchanting Tony award winning classic is a musical treasure for children and adults alike.