We are in the business of preparing caring professionals who teach for understanding in communities of learning!

Need a more traditional option for post-baccalaureate teacher certification?

For more information contact:
Sally Rae, Program Director
Undergraduate Teacher Education
Phone: (517)-264-7892
Web: www.sienaheights.edu

Mission
Siena Heights University is a Catholic university founded and sponsored by the Adrian Dominican Sisters. Founded in the liberal arts tradition, Siena offers associate’s, bachelor’s and master’s degrees. The university is headquartered in Adrian, Michigan with degree completion centers located throughout Michigan.

Think HIGHER
SIENA HEIGHTS UNIVERSITY

Intensive Certification Program (ICP)
Your Fast Track to Teaching!

Be part of Siena’s:
• Newly Structured
• Flexible
• Fast Tracked
• Post Baccalaureate
• Secondary Teacher Certification Program
What is the ICP all about?

Our ICP candidates:
- participate in multiple, school-based experiences
- work with classroom teachers who demonstrate best practices
- are provided with opportunities to explore the connection between theory and practice and to work with a variety of students

The flexibility of the ICP program enables a highly diverse clientele access to teacher education at nontraditional times and by means of non-traditional delivery modes.

The ICP Students enjoy:
- cutting edge instructional technologies
- excellent facilities
- one on one learning opportunities
- a blend of traditional and online classes
- some courses in a hybrid format that could include:
  - case studies
  - online quizzes
  - group collaborations
  - virtual drop box submission for assignments, homework and projects

What is the ICP course structure?

Summer
- Introduction to the Teaching Profession

Fall
- Methods and Materials for Secondary Teaching
- Mentored Internship
- Understanding Today’s Youth

Winter
- Teaching of Reading Through the Content Areas
- Student Teaching
- Student Teaching Seminar

Who the ICP is for?

The intensive Certification Program (ICP) is designed to fast-track your entry to the teaching profession.

- College graduates seeking secondary provisional teacher certification.
- Teachers and substitutes who currently do not have a provisional teacher certificate.
- Baccalaureate degreed individuals presently in business/industry seeking a career change.

You have not missed the opportunity for teaching certification, because we have a program just for you!